

BARN MANAGER

ELLEN MILLER RIDING SCHOOL – NORTH FERRISBURGH, VT

The Ellen Miller Riding School, a full-service Dressage training barn, is looking to hire a barn manager/ working student starting November 1st of this year. Person must have strong people skills and horse experience. Duties include all aspects of care for 16 horses. Some stall cleaning in addition to feeding, turnout, grooming, tack cleaning, operating farm equipment, and riding for the right person. You should be self-motivated and have a good sense of how a barn runs. The position comes with housing all utilities included and potentially a stall for your horse and monthly salary. This is a great opportunity to work with two Grand Prix level trainers and learn the horse business from the inside out.
