27th Annual Equine Reproduction Workshop & Related Topics of Interest
March 27th & 28th, 2015

March 28th - FRIDAY afternoon/evening - (Middlebury Inn)
3:30 - 4:00 - Registration (sign-in, pick up materials, coffee/networking)
4:00 - 6:00 - Lectures
   - Overview of Equine Breeding, State of the Art
   - Hereditary Disorders
   - Anatomy and Physiology of the Stallion
6:00 - 7:00 - Dinner
7:00 - 9:00 - Lectures
   - Anatomy and Physiology of the Mare
   - Facilities and Preparation for Stallion Semen Collection
     (Training the Inexperienced Stallion to the Breeding Phantom Video/Discussion)

March 29th – SATURDAY morning - (Middlebury Inn)
7:30 - 8:30 - Continental Breakfast (lecture room)
8:30 - 9:45 - Managing the Breeding Program
   (Teasing program, use of lights and hormones, and semen evaluation)
9:45 - 10:45 – Foaling and Neonatal Care
   (Video with discussion and comments)
10:45- Noon - Artificial Insemination, Fresh-Cooled and Frozen Semen Update
   (Supplies, equipment and procedures for collection, evaluation, processing and packaging semen)
Noon – 1:00 - LUNCH - then travel 2.5 miles to the Farm

March 29th – SATURDAY afternoon - (UVM Morgan Horse Farm)
1:15 - 2:15 - Tour/Discussion of Foaling Facilities at UVM Morgan Horse Farm
2:15 - 2:45 - Ultrasound Demonstration
2:45 - 5:00 - Hands-on, Rotating Groups
   - Station I - Teasing/Collecting
   - Station II - Evaluating/Processing/Packing Live Semen
   - Station III - Inseminating/Frozen Semen Handling

Schedule is subject to change.