Vermont Dairy Industry Association
Memorial Scholarship

The Vermont Dairy Industry Association (VDIA) proudly announces the availability of the 2012 Memorial Scholarship. Eligible students must attend the University of Vermont or Vermont Technical College and seek a degree in agricultural business, agricultural science, or a related field.

The VDIA established this scholarship to further its commitment to the education of its members and the study of dairying in Vermont. Selection is based on academic achievement, community involvement, and work ethic. One to six scholarships will be awarded at levels ranging from $500 to $1000. The deadline for submitting a completed application with all supporting materials is March 9, 2012.

The Vermont Student Assistance Corporation (VSAC) administers the application process for the VDIA Memorial Scholarship. For more information, please contact VSAC at 888-253-4819 or visit www.vsac.org.

The Vermont Dairy Industry Association works for the mutual benefit of its members, dairy farm families, and the dairy industry; and encourages and promotes close cooperation with educational institutions and other agencies concerned with the dairy industry. In addition to its scholarship program, VDIA sponsors the FFA Dairy Foods Career Development Event, which is held during the Farm Show. For more information about the VDIA, its events, or the VDIA Memorial Scholarship please visit www.vdia.org.
